

Please, I beg you, do not change the law on unsolicited calls to our phones. I no longer feel I must answer a phone only to find it was an unnecessary call. In the past I have tripped on my way to answer these calls, which as I have stated are unnecessary and a nuisance